

Guy Fawkes, Poppies & Pizza @hovinghammarket

York born Guy Fawkes is with us in spirit at the Hovingham Village Market on Sat 5th November. Our researcher has pulled together an exclusive booklet of fascinating and eclectic facts about North Yorkshire's infamous son. The booklet is available in our Community Cafe, this month, run by the Hovingham Church.

With over 50 local stalls championing local producers and makers you won't find on the High Street, shopping is a joy. And you can pick up some great gifts too - yes some of our Market visitors have already started their Christmas shopping.

Our community stall holders include the Royal British Legion's Annual Poppy Appeal and New Beginnings, supporting retired racehorses.

The Howardian Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty are interested in knowing your views about rural tranquility too.

Talented Jack is back and will be playing his saxophone for the enjoyment of Market visitors.

In support of the annual Poppy Appeal, the Hovingham Branch of the Royal British Legion have a range of poppies including the familiar lapel type, bendy rulers, wooden crosses, adult & children's wristbands, car poppies, metal poppy lapel pins and altar poppies.

Door collections take place in Hovingham, Scacklton, Coulton and Stonegrave and together with the sales at the Market, the Hovingham Branch raised over £1,730 last year due to your generosity.

Hovingham Market is one of the few places where you can select from such a wide range of poppy merchandise.

The New Beginnings Community Stall have a range of items for sale – Christmas Cards, notebooks, gift cards, puzzles, pens, cuddly horses – with all proceeds going to this worthwhile charity, based just outside of Malton. There will also be a tombola - and a used book section where you can help yourself to some reading material to enjoy in the long winter evenings, simply for a donation of an amount of your own choosing.

'Life past the post'

New Beginnings horses are 'loaned' to long term loving homes but will always return to New Beginnings if circumstances change, offering a secure future for these beautiful creatures as they will never be sold.
