Meet Ryedale's new Community Officer & Community First Yorkshire

Find out more about the role of our new Community Officer, Melanie Holmes. The Community Team is responsible for Council services to local communities, dealing with all issues that arise in their areas and providing the link between the Council, partners and the community.

This includes air quality testing, car park liaison, community events, dog fouling, market liaison, private water supply testing, parish liaison, police liaison, pub watch, road safety, Ryecare visits and much, much, more.

Community First Yorkshire is a new organisation formed from two well-established charities: Rural Action Yorkshire (RAY) and the North Yorkshire & York Forum (NYFY).

Community First Yorkshire provide practical support to voluntary and community organisations and social enterprises to help organisations or groups achieve its goals and better support their beneficiaries or residents. Meet Maggie Farey and find out more. <http://communityfirstyorkshire.org.uk>

Buy a minute and keep the chime in our time! The Hovingham Village (Church) Clock Appeal are raising funds to automate the winding of the clock. When 60 minutes have been purchased, the lucky winner receives £10.

Carry away your Hovingham Market goodies in our new design bags made from strong jute. Please ask one of our volunteers if you'd like a bag. The bags cost £3 each or £5 for two and they last a long time.

Our August Market Manager is Murray Stewart
