

Market Open Saturday 10:30^{am} to 1:30^{pm}

Welcome to our November Market

Hovingham Remembers the 100 years since the 1918 Armistice

We're warming up to Bonfire Night with delicious, enjoyable hearty food for outdoor celebrations

Come along and savour the taste and flavours of the Hovingham Village Market

There are many friends and volunteers who make this Market possible; a very special thank you is due to Martin Gormley who is the landlord of the Malt Shovel pub next door. Martin has allowed the Market Stallholders to use his Car Park and fully supported the Market.

Martin is unfortunately leaving as the pub has been sold to a new owner.

We all wish Martin the very best in the future and thank him again for being a great friend and supporter of the Market.

Thank You Martin

Please take a moment to visit our two special commemorative displays outside Hovingham All Saints Church which commemorate the sacrifice of the 78 local men who went off to WW1 (many of whom returned scarred physically and mentally) and the sixteen who lost their lives. The displays are a moving illustration of the impact of war on our small community. Thank you for your support.

West Plum Studios support local businesses and have used a local printer to produce Christmas cards. This means the cards were designed and printed within a 3 mile radius: supporting a local business and keeping the carbon footprint really small.

The cards themselves are eco-friendly, printed onto responsibly sourced materials and supplied with 100% recycled envelopes.

They're available individually and also in sets of 6 and 12 from me at the market.

Special offers are available to businesses, contact sophie@westplumstudio.co.uk for more details. Pre orders can be collected from the market to minimise postage costs.

Beacon and bell ringing at Scackleton.

The bells rang out on November 11, 1918 to announce the end of the most catastrophic war the world had yet seen; fourteen hundred bell ringers lost their lives. Responding to the call from the Queen's Pageant, Master Bruno Peek, Scackleton is lighting a beacon at 4.30 p.m. and joining 5000 churches across the land with bell ringing at 7.00 p.m.

Please come and join us for this poignant event.
