Paperspoon News from Christine

At the Hovingham Village Market, we encourage and nurture new talent. With the opening of Christine's new shop in the Shambles in Malton, Christine said goodbye to all her loyal customers, stallholders and friends last month.

"I'm sad to say that I will no longer be continuing with my stall, I need to be in the shop now on a Saturday as my busiest day. I've met some amazing people and made lots of friends in the time I've been at Hovingham and now a new chapter in the Paperspoon story has begun, thanks so much for your support."

Congratulations Christine from the Hovingham Village Market.
We wish you and Paperspoon every success.
